Colonel Jack Jacobs, USA (Ret.) military analyst for NBC/MSNBC and Vietnam War Congressional

Medal of Honor Recipient, was born in Brooklyn, New York. He holds Bachelor's and Master's degrees from Rutgers University and entered the U.S. Army in 1966. He served as a platoon leader in the 82nd Airborne Division, executive officer of an infantry battalion in the 7th Infantry Division, and commanded the 4th Battalion 10th Infantry in Panama. A member of the faculty of the US Military Academy, Jacobs taught international relations and comparative politics for three years, and he was a member of the faculty of the National War College in Washington, DC. He was in Vietnam twice, both times as an advisor to Vietnamese infantry battalions, and he is among the most highly decorated soldiers from that era, having earned three Bronze Stars, two Silver Stars and the Medal of Honor, the nation's highest combat decoration.

Major General Perry M. Smith, USA (Ret.) is a teacher, speaker, TV and radio commentator and best-selling author. Hundreds of millions of television viewers world-wide came to know him during the Persian Gulf War for his many appearances as a military analyst for the Cable News Network, The Lehrer News Hour with Jim Lehrer, NBC news, and CBS Television. A retired major general, Smith served for 30 years in the U. S. Air Force. During his career he had a number of leadership experiences, including command of the F-15 wing at Bitburg, Germany. He flew 180 combat missions in F-4 aircraft over North Vietnam and Laos during the Vietnam War. His books include Rules and Tools for Leaders, Assignment Pentagon, and A Hero Among Heroes: Jimmie Dyess and the 4th Marine Division. The latter book is a biography of the only person to have earned America's two highest awards for heroism, the Medal of Honor and the Carnegie Medal. In 2006, he produced a 60 minute DVD, Twice A Hero: The Jimmie Dyess Story.
